RESEARCH TEAM "HOUSING WORKSHOP" SAFE AND INCLUSIVE HOUSING FOR AN AGEING SOCIETY

Short description

The International Conference on "Safe and Inclusive Housing for an Ageing Society" aims to address a key issue that is central to debates, policies and strategic actions for the European and Italian research programs.

Promoted by Department of Architecture of the Roma Tre University, the Conference aims to gather and discuss the contributions from the scientific community, the technicians and the third sector on housing programs and interventions on the ageing society. The Conference will be an occasion for theoretical and informative comparison, stretched toward wider understanding of issues such as urban and architectural quality, safety and inclusiveness. International guest lecturers are invited for the open plenary session with the aim of creating a place of exchange and discussion on the practices and interventions planned and on the whole building process.

Prior to the International Conference the call for papers will select the contributions from various sources with the aim of defining a critical state of art.
